River Boat Trip

Ocean's Creek has recently launched a river ride along the tranquil water of the Tombeau River, which takes its source on the slopes of Pieter Both Mountain, the second higher mountain in Mauritius and named after Pieter Both, the first Governor-General of the Dutch East Indies. The notable feature of this mountain is the gigantic rock formation at the very top of it, which resembles a human head.

The boat ride is offered daily is complimentary to all the hotel's guest to enjoy during their stay. The boat may also be privatised for a couple, family or a group of friends either to simply enjoy the river ride or for Breakfast, Lunch or dinner.
